

Milestones & Outcomes 2018

	State	National	Global
 Justice	Human Trafficking Prevention Program with CT hospitality industry, social service providers, and law enforcement	Petition Connecticut Attorney General to shut down Backpage.com #MeToo Panel with Dylan Farrow and Jane Doe No More	Creation of Unchain as a public charity Letter of Intent with Prime Minister of Georgia at UBS - ethical supply chains New international training program to counter transnational organized crime, focused on illegal wildlife trade in Thailand, Tanzania, and Congo
 Arts	Governor's Patron of the Arts Award Launched a curated playspace for creative families	Meredith Monk 10-day residency and performance of Cellular Songs Debut of new sound installation Joy, still. by renowned artist Julianne Swartz, on exhibit through March 2019	Culmination of the Practicing series, which examined empathy, awe, silence, and joy introducing a new method for artist-based, interdisciplinary research
 Nature	80 species of birds confirmed on site 40 free programs to connect with nature 2,000 lbs. of trash collected as stewards of local rivers	Partnered to preserve open space and restore native habitats and wildlife. Partners include: Regional Conservation Partnerships, Trust for Public Lands, and The Nature Conservancy	Public debut of new model to combat wildlife trafficking. Partners include: Tanzanian National Anti-Poaching Task Force, Mozambican Anti-Poaching Law Enforcement, and the Lusaka Agreement Task Force
 Faith	Restorative and conducive environment for mindfulness courses with Copper Beech Institute	6-week Life Worth Living course with Yale Center for Faith & Culture	Renowned journalists Michelle Boorstein (The Washington Post) and Wajahat Ali (CNN & The New York Times contributor) discuss faith and media
 Community	Co-hosted Advocacy Day with Fairfield County's Community Foundation for 130 not-for-profit representatives and community members	Public program with Kevin Young, Director of the New York Public Library's Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture & Poetry Editor of The New Yorker	Setting benchmarks for Space Grant program, benefiting more than 80 not-for-profits
 grace farms	Grew 250+ lbs. of fresh produce for families in need in CT Hosted Regional Convening for Sustainable Development	LEED Certified for Operations + Maintenance (pending review) EPA Green Power Plan Partner	Made in a Free World Welcoming 100,000+ visits from community and around the world